Dear Mr. Gosmith.

Thank you so much for your Christmas remembrance. You are nothing but original! - The Hi-Tony book you have selected very simply and beautifully, a home picture will be unforgettable. I too was brought up - after coming from Virginia - in a little Canadian town at my grandfathers' house. The town was Cobourg, and my grandfather had the distinction of being the first white child born in the county. Every detail of your story is true, and I can have mine over with you.

I think you have done a most unusual bit of work for it is so brief - and so remarkably reaches the past. The little book should be printed and reprinted for those of us to read, whose lonely youth like yours, was spent in a quaint and old fashioned town of Canada - with queer old gardens, and trees still standing that were part of the forest primeval; - with such passing through, up and down with baskets and what-not; — and some fish-wives carrying baskets of whale fish from the lake — on their disbanded heads. — You see how you have stirred up old memories.

Fondly yours

Frances Sheard

My best wishes for the new year to you and all yours.
